Note from Pastor Mei Yee

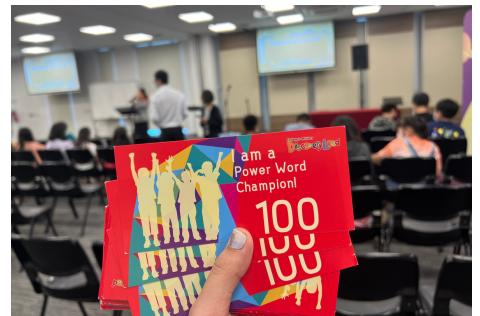

Dear Parents,

This February, we had a three-week series called "A Tale of 3 Tails".

Through interactive acting, videos and teaching, our children learnt about what it means to be a child of God: how God loves them, that they are precious to God, and that they belong to God's house!

February Recap

March is the month where we celebrate God's passionate heartbeat for the nations through Missions Carnival, Missions Rally, and Missions Weekend.

For the children, their Missions journey started last month with a three-week series entitled "Here I Am" where they learnt how they can be a blessing to the nations. No matter their age, we believe that they can touch the world for Jesus by praying, giving, and going.

This weekend (Mar 4 and 5) is our Missions Faith Promise, where we are believing for our children to step out in faith and give generously to the nations. Some might even hear God's call to be in the missions field one day!

Get your Missions Carnival tickets from now till Mar 11 and 12!

While discipleship might start at church, it continues at home. During family time, continue to inspire your children for Missions with these activities:

Following Missions, our children will be gearing up for Easter with a three-part series entitled "The Grand Tour." Just as they can impact the nations, God can also use them to impact their schools and spheres of influence.

Let's continue to disciple a generation that loves God and loves people. Pray with us that our children will hear God's call for their lives and learn to live by faith!

Tip 1:
Look at a world map and choose a nation to pray for

Tip 2:
Plan to go as a family on a Missions Impact Trip (MIT)
Check out Trinity App for upcoming MITs

Tip 3:
Set aside pocket money for Missions

Or set aside a Missions piggy bank!

Previous MITs where children followed their parents to serve the nations
